

DTAA Scholarship

The Delaware Township Athletic Association's mission is to instill firmly in all DTAA participants the ideal of good sportsmanship, honesty, courage, respect, and responsibility; to promote the physical, moral, mental, social, and emotional well-being of all participants; to encourage leadership, initiative, and good judgment on the part of all participants; to emphasize and instill in all participants the value of cooperative effort; and to promote sports as enjoyable, rewarding and educational experiences.

DTAA has created two $500 scholarships for graduating high school seniors who meet and are selected based on the scholarship criteria. The scholarship(s) will be awarded annually and paid once in a lump sum to qualified candidate(s).

The scholarship criteria are as follows:

1. Must be a Delaware Township Resident
2. Must have played in DTAA
3. Complete the application form
4. Complete and submit the written personal responses to identify how the candidate reflects the values above

Applications must be postmarked by April 1, 2024. Mail completed application:
